

ONE on ONE with GOD

meets you at your point of faith

- In reading the Word of God, many people miss the God of the Word. Therefore, they miss the one-on-one relationship.
- At its core, Christianity is Christ—the person of Christ. Christians embrace a Person, not merely a philosophy. This is the essence of the one-on-one fellowship.

It's not so much knowing about Jesus but rather knowing Him. This is the essence of a dynamic relationship and fellowship that you can enjoy.

Jerry and Marilyn Fine are lay people who have taught God's Word in the USA and abroad for over fifty years. Their thirty-year career as government contractors took them to every part of the USA. Following God's leading, they retired early to invest more time in making disciples.

Literally tens of thousands of people around the world have been disciples through One on One with God, which Jerry and Marilyn wrote and compiled.

What people are saying about ONE on ONE with GOD

One on One with God is anointed by God and the best material I have ever seen on discipleship.

Jack Humphreys
26 years with
Billy Graham Evangelistic Association

I have personally been through One on One with God in a small group at Crossings and have seen firsthand the benefit of this wonderful approach. It is systematic, consistent, and biblically and doctrinally sound. It provides a daily tool for reading and applying God's Word, spending time in prayer, and growing closer to the Lord. It changed my life. It has changed our church.

Marty Grubbs
Senior Pastor
Crossings Community Church
Oklahoma City, OK

I am ordering leader's guides for the four girls I disciplined this semester. There are people coming out of the woodwork wanting to go through One on One with God. They're realizing that they are not experiencing abundant life! It's great!

Jacque Allen
Student, GA

One on One with God is a powerful and comprehensive yet simple tool for knowing God, living by His promises, and making disciples. I have used it as a churchman while a trial lawyer, in several languages as an international missionary, as a church planter, and now as an educator.

Mark McClellan, J.D., Ph.D.
Professor of Missions
Director of Hispanic Programs
Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary

Through One on One with God we saw the lives of countless Africans marvelously transformed.

Charles Tope
Former Pastor, IMB Missionary,
Billy Graham Evangelistic Association

Over the years I have had occasion to study and sometimes use workbooks which are designed to help Christians grow. One on One with God is superior to any I have ever seen.

Dr. Roy J. Fish
Former Professor of Evangelism
Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary

I was disciplined many years ago with One on One with God and have had the privilege of using it to disciple groups of women at my church. One on One effectively teaches the essential spiritual disciplines—for both new believers and those who have walked with the Lord for years—and prepares disciples to make disciples.

Paula Corley
Church member

One on One with God isn't a program to go through but a lifestyle to develop. Knowing Christ intimately and then giving your life to developing others into disciple-makers is the goal.

Max Barnett
Collegiate Ministries

One on One with God develops people into mature, consistent, and balanced Christians. The heart of this discipleship tool is teaching people to walk in an intimate love relationship with Christ.

Dr. Anthony Jordan
Former Executive Director
Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma
Oklahoma City, OK

A Process for Discipleship

[For my determined purpose is] that I may know Him—that I may progressively become more deeply and intimately acquainted with Him, perceiving and recognizing and understanding [the wonders of His Person] more strongly and more clearly. And that I may in that same way come to know the power outflowing from His resurrection [which it exerts over believers]; and that I may so share His sufferings as to be continually transformed [in spirit into His likeness even] to His death, [in the hope]

—Philippians 3:10 AMPC
